

I am Warrior!

- 1. Make a model of a Roman villa using junk materials such as cereal boxes, coloured paper, tin foil and cardboard tubes. Use online images and pictures in non-fiction books to inspire the layout of your villa.
- 2. Research Roman life. Which websites did you use? Would you recommend any to a friend?
- 3. Look at holiday brochures and online information to find out about modern day Rome as a tourist destination. Which tourist attractions would you like to visit? What is the weather like? Where else would you like to go in Italy?
- 4. Write some number calculations using Roman numerals, for your family to solve. (You could post these on dojo for others to solve.)
- 5. Watch the closing credits of your favourite British TV programme. Can you find the Roman numerals at the end? In what year was the programme made?
- 6. Find out the dates of birth of your family and friends and record them in Roman numerals.
- 7. Find out if there are any Roman forts or settlements near where you live.
- 8. Create a PowerPoint presentation, showing the artefacts that most interest you, and provide information about what they were used for.
- 9. Recreate a famous Roman scene or create your own trailer for a Roman film using the I Movie app.
- 10. Try to find a map of Roman Britain. Find out about some of the names of towns and cities. What are their modern names?
- 11. Read a book or watch a film on a Roman theme. Write a review to let your classmates know what you thought about it.
- 12. Write a diary entry as if you are a Roman soldier, a slave in a Roman villa or a Celtic child. What is your typical day like?
- 13. Use an online translation tool to write well-known phrases in Latin, the language of the Romans. Perhaps you could write a birthday or seasonal greeting?
- 14. Find some proverbs with Roman origins. Choose one and write it in your best handwriting with suitable illustrations. Can you explain to your
